Pastor's Corner

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

This weekend, we celebrate the Second Sunday of Lent. Just a reminder during this season, that we have two opportunities for growth in faith through a Scripture Study focusing on the Life and Ministry of St. Peter that meets following the 8:00 a.m. Mass on Friday mornings. The other opportunity is on Monday evenings, at 7:00 p.m. This study is called "No Greater Love: A Biblical Walk though of Christ's Passion."

These opportunities can be a great way to deepen your faith throughout this penitential season and I encourage you to check them out!

In the Gospel this Sunday, we hear the story of the Transfiguration of Jesus Christ.

Before His triumphal entry into Jerusalem, Christ climbed to a high point on Mount Tabor with His disciples Peter, James, and John. While Jesus prayed on the mountain, His appearance was changed by a brilliant white light which shone from Him and from His clothing.

During this event, the Old Testament figures of Moses and the prophet Elijah also appeared. The presence of Moses and Elijah shows how Jesus fulfills the Law and the Prophets. In the Old Testament, the Levitical law was given to God's people as a temporary administration, demonstrating their need for a Savior.

Later, the prophets told of a coming Messiah, who would mend the rift between God and man that had been caused by sin. Matthew, Mark, and Luke all record that, as Jesus stood Transfigured, the voice of God was heard telling the disciples that Jesus is His "beloved Son."

On August 6, 2006, Pope Benedict XVI described how the events of the Transfiguration display Christ as the "full manifestation of God's light." Light which shines forth from Christ both at the Transfiguration and after His Resurrection, is ultimately triumphant over "the power of the darkness of evil." Pope Benedict said, "we urgently need to emerge from the darkness of evil, to experience the joy of the children of light!" Jesus was the only man able to satisfy the Law; the perfect, sinless sacrifice.

Perhaps during this Lenten Season, we can consider how God is calling each of us to emerge from the darkness of evil, to experience the joy of the children of light.

God bless,

Fr. Smith

"Let us also love our neighbors as ourselves. Let us have charity and humility. Let us give alms because these cleanse our souls from the stains of sin. Men lose all the material things they leave behind them in this world, but they carry with them the reward of their charity and the alms they give. For these they will receive from the Lord the reward and recompense they deserve."

BLOOD DRIVE

Many thanks to all those who gave the gift of life last week. The Red Cross is experiencing an EMERGENCY BLOOD SHORTAGE as the nation faces the lowest number of people giving blood in 20 years. Blood products are currently going to hospitals faster than blood donations are coming in, and in recent weeks, the Red Cross has had to limit distributions of type O blood products – among the most transfused blood types – to hospitals. Our next Blood Drive is scheduled for Monday, March 18, for 12:00 noon-6:00 p.m.

BELOVEDReflection on Mark 9:2-10*

The transfiguration of Jesus in today's Gospel is closely linked to His Baptism by John in the Jordan. On both occasions the sky speaks those words of generative love: "This is my beloved Son..."

At Jesus' Baptism, Mark reports that the proclamation, "This is my beloved Son," is followed by "with you I am well pleased." Each of us hear those same words spoken to us personally at Baptism, when we begin our lifelong journey of faith. At every stage of that journey, in every moment, we are embraced as daughters and sons who are beloved by God, and with whom God is pleased. This reality, this status of belonging in a royal, holy household, is not earned, but pure gift. God delights in you, His son, His daughter.

Whenever I hear this transfiguration story, where God follows those words of generative love with the command, "Listen to him," I am reminded of the last recorded words of Mary, the beloved Mother of Jesus, in the Gospel: "Do whatever he tells you." (from the wedding feast at Cana)

Listen to Him, and Do whatever He tells you. This journey of faith is a story that is the Word of God told throughout human history. It is told in the lives of our ancestors, and written by God with our lives as well. Listening to His Word, and doing what He instructs us to do, involves a daily and sometimes hourly choice to act in this world as if it were true that God is love, despite any evidence to the contrary.
