Pastor's Corner

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

This weekend, we celebrate both the Fourth Sunday of Advent and the Nativity of Our Lord at Christmas. This is the second time since I have been a priest that Christmas Eve has fallen on a Sunday – this means, at least for priests, that it is a very busy day indeed! After Fr. Jesse and I finish with our Sunday Masses, we will begin preparing for our Christmas Eve Masses a few hours later. We look forward to seeing you there!

I am very grateful to all who made this Advent Season such a beautiful one to celebrate, and to those who offered (or will offer) their gifts of talent for the Christmas Season ahead. Thank you to our musicians and those who lent their talents to decorate our church for the season!

I welcome, in a special way, all visitors to our parish during this Christmas Season and welcome back those who may have been away for a time. We are grateful for your presence and the presence of all the faithful who gather to celebrate the coming of Christ!

It is in these times that we are called to remember all the blessings Our Lord has given us in our lives, especially our own families. We are also called to remember the gift of Christ Incarnate, who brings salvation to the world. This Christmas Season is filled with great joy and expectation in the Second Coming of Christ and the Glory of God in the Highest!

The liturgical celebration of the Lord's Nativity has many variables and components. There are four particular timeframes during which Mass might be celebrated in observance of this great feast: a vigil, a Mass at night, a Mass at dawn and a Mass during the day. Each of these Masses have their own unique prayers and readings. The newness of life made possible because of the Incarnation pervades the prayers and feasts of the Christmas season.

The four different Gospel readings assigned for use at the different Masses of Christmas all speak of the variety of the people affected by the Savior's coming. The beginning of St. Matthew's Gospel (see Mt 1:1-25), which lists Jesus' family lineage, is proclaimed at the Vigil Mass. This includes major figures of Judaism like Abraham and David, whose covenants with God foreshadow the new and everlasting covenant that will be sealed in the blood of Christ. But Christ's lineage also emphasizes that He came to save the poor and lowly, shown by connecting Him to ancestors of low degree, socially or morally – like the four women mentioned, including David's mistress Bathsheba. Jesus came to save them all.

The Gospel read at the Mass at night (see Lk 2:1-14) also underscores the importance of Christ's Coming for the marginalized and outcast, embodied by the news of His birth being shared firstly with the shepherds and not the rulers endowed with earthly power, who might be perceived as entitled to receiving such news on behalf of their subjects.

It is important to note that on Christmas, the faithful all are to genuflect or kneel during the Creed at the words relative to this central mystery of Christian faith, "and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary and became man." This helps us keep our hearts and minds focused on what the feast is all about. As the popular Christmas carol "Hark the Herald Angels Sing" phrases it, Jesus was "born that man no more may die; born to raise the sons of earth, born to give them second birth..."

May our hearts be stirred to a deeper love of the mysteries of our faith and the Lord Himself during this Christmas Season!

God bless,
Fr. Smith

Bottoms Up
DIAPER BANK

DID YOU KNOW? – MODERN-DAY MANGER

As we inch our way toward the celebration of the most significant birth in history, we need to remember the "Bethlehems" right here in our back yard. There are women who are caring for their babies in a way not dissimilar to Mary twenty-one centuries ago. Oftentimes, through no fault of their own, these mothers are thrown into a life of poverty that inflicts the child with a life that is rough and hard to endure. 2024 is just around the corner. Have a blessed Christmas and stay tuned for the improvements and increased aid that Bottoms Up will offer those who most need us! For more information and ways you can help, visit www.bottomsup.life.

THE KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS NEED YOU!

It's that time of year when the Knights of Columbus offer many charitable contributions, including our Keep Christ in Christmas program, Tree for Life, and more.

CONSECRATION TO THE HOLY FAMILY

The Sunday after Christmas is the Feast of the Holy Family and Father Smith, Father Jesse and the Knights encourage each family to invite the Holy Family into our lives to establish or strengthen the Domestic Church, our homes. The decision to consecrate your family needs to be intentional and a process through which you completely surrender to God through the Holy Family. You are accepting the truth that salvation history was changed forever by a family, and that through your domestic church, you are called to live their example. Please see the bulletin insert for ways to prepare for this event.

FAMILY FULLY ALIVE

The Knights of Columbus encourage each family to strengthen the Domestic Church by inviting God into our homes in the coming year. The Family Fully Alive program provides guidance on ways to establish and strengthen your Domestic Church in the form of themes, Scripture verses and activities. This is not simply a booklet and you are on your own, but a continuous program that will take feedback, offer support, and grow with our parishioners throughout the year and beyond.

To begin this program with your family, please pick up a booklet in the Gathering Space. If you have any questions, please contact Gus Smithhisler at 614-530-0160. And watch for additional opportunities and programs in coming months.

JESSE TREE

Many thanks to those who donated items on and under the Jesse Tree in the Gathering Space. Hats, scarves, gloves and mittens on the tree will be donated to the Salvation Army homeless shelter in Newark. The Knights of Columbus will deliver baby items for Heartbeats.

Saint Juan Diego

Mary, the Mother of Jesus, appeared to Saint Juan Diego and asked him to build a church. Saint Juan Diego asked the bishop for help to build the church, but the Bishop wanted proof of Juan Diego's vision. Mary told him to pick roses for the bishop. This doesn't seem special—but it was snowy outside. Roses don't grow in the snow!

Saint Juan Diego carried the roses in his coat called a tilma. When he showed the roses to the bishop, there was a beautiful picture of Mary on his tilma. That picture is a special image of Mary called...

GOD'S CALL

Reflection on Luke 1:26-38

The Gospel for this fourth Sunday of Advent is the familiar visitation scene – God calling Mary to be the mother of His Son. With her “yes,” Mary is elevated from an obscure teenager to be the mother of God, from a time-and-space-bound human being to Queen of Heaven, from a prayerful supplicant to the eternal go-to Lady for intercession and perpetual help! The interruption of the incarnation becomes, for Mary, the path to holiness: “Blessed are you among women!”

In these final days of Advent waiting and preparation, consider how the incarnation – the birth of Jesus both in human history and in this very moment of your life – calls you to God’s higher purposes. With Mary as our pattern of holiness, God is revealing some of what God wants from us: to be a co-creator of life, a nurturer, a font of love, a teacher, a healer, a reconciler, a prophet, a companion. “May it be done to me according to your word.”

~ Fr. Jay

SAINT JOHN THE EVANGELIST

Feast Day: December 27

Patron Saint of: Turkey

It is God who calls; human beings answer. The vocation of John and his brother James is stated very simply in the Gospels, along with that of Peter and his brother Andrew: Jesus called them; they followed. For the three former fishermen—Peter, James and John—that faith was to be rewarded by a special friendship with Jesus, but John’s friendship was even more special. John’s own Gospel refers to him as “the disciple whom Jesus loved” (see John 13:23; 19:26; 20:2), the one who reclined next to Jesus at the Last Supper, and the one to whom Jesus gave the exquisite honor of caring for his mother, as John stood beneath the cross. “Woman, behold your son.... Behold, your mother” (John 19:26b, 27b).

On the first Easter, Mary Magdalene “ran and went to Simon Peter and to the other disciple whom Jesus loved, and told them, ‘They have taken the Lord from the tomb, and we don’t know where they put him’” (John 20:2). John recalls, perhaps with a smile, that he and Peter ran side by side, but then “the other disciple ran faster than Peter and arrived at the tomb first” (John 20:4b). He did not enter, but waited for Peter and let him go in first. “Then the other disciple also went in, the one who had arrived at the tomb first, and he saw and believed” (John 20:8).

John was with Peter when the first great miracle after the Resurrection took place—the cure of the man crippled from birth—which led to their spending the night in jail together. The mysterious experience of the Resurrection is perhaps best contained in the words of Acts: “Observing the boldness of Peter and John and perceiving them to be uneducated, ordinary men, they [the questioners] were amazed, and they recognized them as the companions of Jesus” (Acts 4:13).

“The way we came to know love was that he laid down his life for us; so we ought to lay down our lives for our brothers” (1 John 3:16).
