Pastor's Corner

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

We have now entered the Liturgical Season of Ordinary Time. After several weeks of preparation in the Season of Advent and celebration in the Season of Christmas, things have finally started to quiet down...or have they?

The term "ordinary" in our common use typically refers to something being plain, unimpressive, or unexciting. A kind of "it is what it is" mentality. For that reason, many people hear Ordinary Time and they immediately think of the season as such. But that understanding doesn't reflect the true meaning of the season.

Ordinary, in this context, comes from the Latin term ordinalis, meaning "numbered" or "ruled." This title simply refers to the ongoing and rhythmical nature of the season. Just like everyday life, there is a rhythm to the days and the weeks. Sure, we have holidays and special occasions that we look forward to that change the pace, just like we have Holy Days and feasts in the Church year. But those special occasions aren't the whole picture, just like there is more to the life of Christ than what we celebrate in other liturgical seasons.

Technically, Ordinary Time has two parts, but it remains one season. The first part begins right after the Feast of the Epiphany and runs until Shrove Tuesday, the day before Ash Wednesday.

The second part begins the Monday after Pentecost and runs until the First Sunday of Advent. This part is typically about twice the length of the first.

Ordinary Time typically contains about 33 or 34 weeks, depending on how other Catholic Church feast days fall. Each of these weeks is denoted by the passing of time. Like all liturgical seasons, Ordinary Time is meant to be lived! We are not passive receptors of the liturgy – or at least we shouldn't be. We are called to be active participants! Participating in Ordinary Time means participating in the everyday life of Jesus.

Here's a short list of ways you can fully embrace this liturgical season and get caught up in Christ:

1. Examine your habits. Your day-to-day life is typically just a series of habits played out one after the other. If you want your life to change, the first place to look is your habits. A great new habit to start: reading the daily Gospel.
2. Gratitude. Joy always finds its root in gratitude. Try starting each day by thanking God for five ordinary, everyday things. If you have a family, try going around the table at dinner time and list off things together.
3. Use your imagination to reflect on the daily life of Jesus. Imagine Jesus doing the simple things. Eating, walking, joking with His friends. Praying. Make yourself a bystander to the Gospel stories in your imagination.

The important thing we must understand about Ordinary Time is that it is a time of growth. Let us unite ourselves more fully to Christ in this Season.

God bless,
Fr. Smith

ST. PETER BIBLE STUDY

The character of St. Peter is both inspiring and confounding to many of us. How could a stubborn and impulsive fisherman become the “rock” upon which Jesus would build His Church? Bringing together biblical accounts, historical evidence, Church teaching, classical art, and personal insights, Dr. Tim Gray gives a fresh perspective on Simon Peter that is immediately informative and relevant to our lives. After all, if Jesus could bring out the very best in someone like Peter, then there is hope for the rest of us.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

We need volunteers to provide Meals at St. Vincent Haven on the third and fourth Sunday evenings in 2024. There is a sign-up sheet in the back of the book on the podium in the Gathering Space. There are also information sheets in the back folder of the book that gives more information. Questions? Call Mike at 614-432-0656 or Lora at 614-432-0657. They would be happy to explain the program to you. You can use food that the Haven has in their freezers and pantry. They just need volunteers to prepare it. Volunteers are also needed to pick up donated items from Panera Bread on Saturday and Sunday nights, (sign-up sheets on the bulletin board in the Gathering Space or text your availability to Diane Green at 859-380-1944 or sign up on Flocknote).

MASS INTENTIONS AVAILABLE

We have many open dates on our calendar for Mass Intentions. Please contact Kathy in the office at 740-967-7871, on my cell at 614-325-0188 or office@johnstownascension.org, or drop a note in the collection with the intention and your name. We will do our best to accommodate any special date requests.

GIVE BLOOD

You can make a difference.

There will be a RED CROSS BLOOD DRIVE on Monday, January 15 from 1:00-7:00 p.m. here at Ascension. Please consider giving the gift of life by donating a pint of blood. You can make an appointment at redcross.org.

MARCH FOR LIFE FAMILY PILGRIMAGE WASHINGTON, D.C.January 17-20, 2024

Please prayerfully consider joining St. Patrick's Pilgrimage to the March for Life. In the march, thousands from across the U.S. are united in one strong voice to speak against 51 years of legalized abortion and the injustice it has been upon women, men, and children in this great country of ours. Now, most sorrowfully in our home state. We pray this will be a life-changing pilgrimage, one that convicts many to take a higher stand for life. We pray eyes are opened to truth, tragedy, and the sorrow of abortion, that hearts are set on fire to spread the Gospel of life, and that we learn to tend the broken hearts of those who were told that abortion would set them free only to discover they were chained to a choice they felt forced to make. You will find the courage and support that you need to stand against what our laws allow, and society promotes.

We will be educated on how the culture of death has taken such a hold on society. You will learn pro-life apologetic, learn how to sidewalk council, watch it in action and be able to join in. We will participate in a Catholic pro-life outreach, where we will defend life and evangelize. Some of the events we will be attending include the Vigil Mass for Life at the National Basilica, March for Life expo featuring our nation's top Pro-life organizations, Priest for Life National Prayer Service, with speakers Bishop Strickland and Mark Houck, March for Life rally, March for Life to the Supreme Court steps, testimonies from Silent No More. We plan to include visits to the Holocaust Museum, John Paul II Memorial and our nation's monuments commemorating our Founding Fathers belief in Life, Liberty and Justice for all, born and unborn. Our itinerary is tentative and could change. We will keep up with last minute events planned by national pro-life leaders and participate in as much as we can. We want everyone who is inspired to join us to be able to do so, scholarships are readily available for those in need of them, we will also have a family cap. It is very important to get everyone on the March for Life Pilgrimage who would like to join us so that many will be inspired to take up the battle for life. It is not a time to feel defeated here in Ohio, it is a time for action in the Holy Spirit to recreate the face of the earth. For complete information, contact Lorraine Vance, email vances@embarqmail.com or phone and voicemail 740-965-2674; no text please. Complete information and forms are available at <https://www.stpatrickcolumbus.org/march-for-life>.

INVITATION

Reflection on John 1:35-42

God does not seem to follow any pattern, protocol, or formula in making Himself known, or in calling individuals into relationship and gifting them for service. Over and over again, Scripture and countless stories in our tradition reveal that there is no predicting when God will come to us or how the visit might occur.

God can call the apprentice instead of the master, in the middle of the night while he is sleeping, as God did with Samuel. God can call an ordinary fellow out of a crowd of people at 4:00 in the afternoon, as God did with Andrew. Or two fisherman busy cleaning their nets, as with James and John. Or a tax collector hiding up a tree, as with Zacchaeus. Or an atheist walking down a crowded street in mid-town Manhattan, as with Thomas Merton. Or an old woman in her seventies, as with St. Mother Teresa.

"Come and see" – the invitation we hear in today's Gospel – can come to any of us, at any time, anywhere. When the invitation comes to you, even if you are, like Samuel, not yet familiar with the crazy ways of God, may you at least imitate His openness and innocent honesty, by saying: "Here I am Lord. Speak, for your servant is listening."

SAINT GREGORY NAZIANZEN

Saint of the Day: January 14

Patron Saint of: Medieval Bosnia

After his Baptism at 30, Gregory gladly accepted his friend Basil's invitation to join him in a newly founded monastery. The solitude was broken when Gregory's father, a bishop, needed help in his diocese and estate. It seems that Gregory was ordained a priest practically by force, and only reluctantly accepted the responsibility. He skillfully avoided a schism that threatened when his own father made compromises with Arianism. At 41, Gregory was chosen suffragan bishop of Caesarea and at once came into conflict with Valens, the emperor, who supported the Arians.

An unfortunate byproduct of the battle was the cooling of the friendship of two saints. Basil, his archbishop, sent him to a miserable and unhealthy town on the border of unjustly created divisions in his diocese. Basil reproached Gregory for not going to his See.

When protection for Arianism ended with the death of Valens, Gregory was called to rebuild the faith in the great See of Constantinople, which had been under Arian teachers for three decades. Retiring and sensitive, he dreaded being drawn into the whirlpool of corruption and violence. He first stayed at a friend's home, which became the only orthodox church in the city. In such surroundings, he began giving the great sermons on the Trinity for which he is famous. In time, Gregory did rebuild the faith in the city, but at the cost of great suffering, slander, insults, and even personal violence. An interloper even tried to take over his bishopric.

His last days were spent in solitude and austerity. He wrote religious poetry, some of it autobiographical, of great depth and beauty. He was acclaimed simply as "the Theologian." St. Gregory Nazianzen shares the celebration of his liturgical feast with St. Basil the Great on January 2.
