Pastor's Corner

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

This weekend, we celebrate the Third Sunday of Ordinary Time. In the Gospel Reading this weekend, we hear the story of the calling of the first disciples. This marks the beginning of Christ's public ministry. After years of prayer and preparation, the climax of salvation history has finally begun!

This version of the calling of the disciples from the Gospel of Mark is the shortest of the Synoptic Gospels and provides little detail of the conversation between Simon, Andrew and Jesus.

The Gospel begins with the account of John the Baptist's arrest, which foreshadows Jesus' own fate and then moves into the ministry of Jesus in Galilee. The Galilean ministry of Jesus is central to the Gospel of Mark.

Galilee is not only the scene of Jesus' earthly ministry, but also the meeting place of the Risen Lord. Mark could be exhorting the Jerusalem Church to turn its sights on this "Galilee," recognizing in the locale of Jesus' earthly ministry, the scene of his impending parousia (Second Coming).

The early Church knew that certain of Jesus' disciples had been with Him from the time of John, hence Mark places this particular episode at the beginning of His ministry in Galilee. Although the words suggest an almost casual encounter, Jesus' call of the disciples was anything but casual.

Jesus makes an imperative claim upon His disciples and gives them new direction to their lives. No less important is the immediate effect of His summons.

Mark gives the impression that Peter and Andrew answered Jesus' call by leaving behind their livelihood, whereas James and John responded by severing family ties. His primary purpose is to show that discipleship entails renunciation of possessions and family ties.

Ultimately, to be a disciple of Christ, we must be willing and ready to give up everything to follow Him.

During this week, let us meditate on Jesus' call of His first disciples, understanding that like Andrew and Simon and James and John, each of us are called by God to follow Him. The question that remains is how we will respond.

God bless,
Fr. Smith

Join Us for a BIBLE STUDY

The Life and ministry of St. Peter, the Apostle

Friday mornings 8:45am
beginning February 2nd

Church of the Ascension
Johnstown, Ohio

ST. PETER BIBLE STUDY

The character of St. Peter is both inspiring and confounding to many of us. How could a stubborn and impulsive fisherman become the "rock" upon which Jesus would build His Church? Bringing together biblical accounts, historical evidence, Church teaching, classical art, and personal insights, Dr. Tim Gray gives a fresh perspective on Simon Peter that is immediately informative and relevant to our lives. After all, if Jesus could bring out the very best in someone like Peter, then there is hope for the rest of us.

Questions? Please contact Carrie Suess at carriesuess@yahoo.com.

FISH OR FISHERS?

Reflection on Mark 1:14-20

We have been caught in the net. So we are fish, as followers of Jesus. But if that is all we are, what is exciting about that? If we are just swimming around in the holding tank of the Church, then we are like fish in public aquariums, well fed and well protected with little more to do than look back at all the funny folks looking at us.

The invitation for us to also be fishers of people is still being issued today, and is perhaps immensely more urgent than ever before. Jesus and His Church need all the help they can get! That is why the Second Vatican Council kept emphasizing the role of ALL God's people to spread the faith, to possess missionary spirit, to evangelize, to show and tell the people we live with, work with, attend classes with, play and pray with, that God's Kingdom of life and love, of peace and forgiveness, of justice and healing, is very much "at hand" – is in our midst – is with us now, today, and until the end of time.

So today, Jesus is not just talking to Simon and Andrew and James and John. Today Jesus is speaking to each one of us. There are many fish in the sea! Get out there and hook some!

~ Fr. Jay

SAINTS TIMOTHY AND TITUS

Saint of the Day: January 26

Patron Saint of: Relief from Stomach Disorders

Timothy had a Greek father and a Jewish mother named Eunice. Being the product of a "mixed" marriage, he was considered illegitimate by the Jews. It was his grandmother, Lois, who first became Christian. Timothy was a convert of Paul around the year 47 and later joined him in his apostolic work. He was with Paul at the founding of the Church in Corinth. During the 15 years he worked with Paul, he became one of his most faithful and trusted friends. He was sent on difficult missions by Paul—often in the face of great disturbance in local churches which Paul had founded.

Timothy was with Paul in Rome during the latter's house arrest. At some period, Timothy himself was in prison (Hebrews 13:23). Paul installed him as his representative at the Church of Ephesus.

Titus has the distinction of being a close friend and disciple of Paul as well as a fellow missionary. He was Greek, apparently from Antioch. Titus is seen as a peacemaker, administrator, great friend. Paul's second letter to Corinth affords an insight into the depth of his friendship with Titus, and the great fellowship they had in preaching the gospel. When Paul was having trouble with the community at Corinth, Titus was the bearer of Paul's severe letter and was successful in smoothing things out.

The "Letter to Titus" addresses him as the administrator of the Christian community on the island of Crete, charged with organizing it, correcting abuses, and appointing presbyter-bishops. In Titus, we get another glimpse of life in the early Church: great zeal in the apostolate, great communion in Christ, great friendship.
