Pastor's Corner

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

On Wednesday this week, the Church will begin the season of Lent. Ash Wednesday Mass will be held at 8:00 a.m. (ad orientem), as well at 7:00 p.m. Ash Wednesday is not a Holy Day of Obligation, but it is a good way to begin the season of Lent. As we begin these days of prayer, fasting and almsgiving, I would like to share with you the words of a holy Dominican friar regarding the season of Lent:

Ash Wednesday marks the beginning of the Lenten practices of prayer, fasting, and almsgiving for many Christians around the world. Why do we pray, fast, and give alms?

First, in the midst of a world seeking ever increasing novelties of pleasure, these time-honored Lenten penances invite us to discipline ourselves. The Church builds upon the foundation of both Scripture and tradition in emphasizing these three forms of penance. Both the Old Testament and the New Testament mention them: Tobit 12:8 highlights the goodness of prayer, fasting, and almsgiving, while Jesus' Sermon on the Mount in Matthew 6 expounds upon how one should carry out these actions in greater detail. For all three practices, Jesus exhorts His listeners not to display their actions ostentatiously to others, but to do these penances in secret. We should not focus on rewards in this life but in the next. The Father, who sees all things, even the actions we hide from others, will repay us. The preeminence of these forms of penance continues throughout the history of the Church, and many saints have written about them.

While God will bless us for our prayer, fasting, and almsgiving, there are also other reasons to keep these Lenten practices. The Catechism of the Catholic Church spells out their purpose in paragraph 1434. Although prayer, fasting, and almsgiving can be acts of self-discipline, they are not exclusively focused on the self but also call us to personal transformation in our interactions with the surrounding community. In his Inferno, Dante portrays Satan as frozen in ice at the center of hell. Satan has made his irrevocable choice against God, and he cannot alter his decision. Thanks be to God; we still have the opportunity to change. Each Lenten practice invites us to conversion in relationship: Prayer, in relation to God; fasting, in relation to oneself; and almsgiving, in relation to others.

You might say: These explanations are honorable but are fairly abstract. How can I make my penances my own? Offer a specific intention for your actions. This Lent, consider presenting your penances to God for a precise intention that resonates more personally with you. Offer your prayers for a friend looking for a job, a coworker going through a breakup, or a family member who is sick. You can even be creative in combining penances. Fast from chocolate not just because you might lose weight, but because you can give what you would spend on chocolate to provide meals at the local homeless shelter.

The Church has recommended the time-tested methods of prayer, fasting, and almsgiving to help us grow. Take ownership of your penances not just on Ash Wednesday but for all of Lent. Ask yourself why you are praying, fasting, and giving alms. What intention will you offer for your Lenten penances?

God bless,
Fr. Smith

ST. PETER BIBLE STUDY

The character of St. Peter is both inspiring and confounding to many of us. How could a stubborn and impulsive fisherman become the "rock" upon which Jesus would build His Church? Bringing together biblical accounts, historical evidence, Church teaching, classical art, and personal insights, Dr. Tim Gray gives a fresh perspective on Simon Peter that is immediately informative and relevant to our lives. After all, if Jesus could bring out the very best in someone like Peter, then there is hope for the rest of us. This study will run though Friday, April 12. Please note that there will not be a class on Good Friday, March 29.

"Let us also love our neighbors as ourselves. Let us have charity and humility. Let us give alms because these cleanse our souls from the stains of sin. Men lose all the material things they leave behind them in this world, but they carry with them the reward of their charity and the alms they give. For these they will receive from the Lord the reward and recompense they deserve." (St. Francis of Assisi)

HEALING HANDS

Reflection on Mark 1:40-45

"Go show yourself to the priest and offer for your cleansing what Moses prescribed." With this admonition, Jesus sends the healed leper off.

What Moses prescribed concerning leprosy is found in chapters 13 and 14 of Leviticus. Reading through these rather complex protocols, we discover that purification after leprosy includes some lengthy rituals involving "two live, clean birds, as well as some cedar wood, scarlet yarn, and hyssop." (Lv 14:4).

It is interesting to note that Jesus Himself did not follow any of these protocols, especially in touching the leper. There's an important lesson here in Jesus' action of healing – taking the risk of touching others with the healing and loving and forgiving power of God is more important than following any protocol.

This story is a good illustration of a key controversy in the Gospels, between Jesus and the religious leaders of His day, who were often offended by Jesus' exercise of His power because it challenged the system they maintained and their place and comfort in the community. Jesus was constantly pointing out that the law was made for the sake of the people, and not the other way around. He wanted the priests and other leaders to learn that people were always more important than the religious system. This is a good lesson for us as well.

OUR LADY OF LOURDES

Saint of the Day: February 11

Patron Saint of: Relief from physical ills

Bernadette was a sickly child of poor parents. Their practice of the Catholic faith was scarcely more than lukewarm. Bernadette could pray the Our Father, the Hail Mary and the Creed. She also knew the prayer of the Miraculous Medal: "O Mary conceived without sin."

During interrogations Bernadette gave an account of what she saw. It was "something white in the shape of a girl." She used the word aquero, a dialect term meaning "this thing." It was "a pretty young girl with a rosary over her arm." Her white robe was encircled by a blue girdle. She wore a white veil. There was a yellow rose on each foot. A rosary was in her hand. Bernadette was also impressed by the fact that the lady did not use the informal form of address (tu), but the polite form (vous). The humble virgin appeared to a humble girl and treated her with dignity.

Through that humble girl, Mary revitalized and continues to revitalize the faith of millions of people. People began to flock to Lourdes from other parts of France and from all over the world. In 1862, Church authorities confirmed the authenticity of the apparitions and authorized the cult of Our Lady of Lourdes for the diocese. The Feast of Our Lady of Lourdes became worldwide in 1907.

Lourdes has become a place of pilgrimage and healing, but even more of faith. Church authorities have recognized over 60 miraculous cures, although there have probably been many more. To people of faith this is not surprising. It is a continuation of Jesus' healing miracles – now performed at the intercession of His mother. Some would say that the greater miracles are hidden. Many who visit Lourdes return home with renewed faith and a readiness to serve God in their needy brothers and sisters.
