SAFE HAVEN SUNDAY

April 13/14, 2024 • Equipping the Family: Having Critical Conversations

The constant flood of influence that comes through the internet and social media in all of its various forms, along with social pressures from peers make it difficult for children to live virtuous and holy lives. In the digital age, it's not a matter of if your child will see something inappropriate online. It's only a matter of when. And regrettably, internet pornography is teaching our children how and what to think about sex and marriage. Next weekend, April 13/14, 2024, the diocese will be celebrating Safe Haven Sunday. This weekend of awareness will provide free resources to give you confidence for how to talk to your children about internet dangers, as well as their personal online and offline choices. Please join us with your prayers and presence as we prepare for this unique event. To learn more, please visit <https://columbuscatholic.org/safe-haven-sunday>.

CITY-WIDE MASS AND PRAISE ADORATION

There will be a City-wide Mass and Praise Adoration on April 13, 10:00 a.m. to Noon at St. Catharine Parish (500 S. Gould Road, Columbus 43209) Fr. Patrick Toner is the Celebrant and Dr. Steve Kebe will be doing a teaching before the Praise Adoration. There will be Confession available and Healing Prayer Teams. This event is sponsored by the Columbus Catholic Renewal.

TORNADO RELIEF

If you were directly affected by the tornado on March 14, we have received some funds to help with repairs. Please let Fr. Smith or Kathy B. know if you need assistance.

Fr. Smith is using a new, easier online booking system to meet with parishioners. If you'd like to schedule a meeting with Fr. Smith, please scan the QR code or visit his calendar at <https://calendly.com/frstephensmith>.

CATHOLIC SCHOOLHOUSE HOMESCHOOL CO OP

Church of the Ascension is hosting a Catholic SchoolHouse Co-op that focuses on Pre-K through 3rd Grade students. Along with the CSH curriculum, the group focuses on Catholic liturgical living. Interested families will be meeting to discuss planning and exploring what the co-op is. These interest meetings will be on Thursdays from 9:00 a.m.-12:00 p.m. with the opportunity to attend the 8:00 a.m. Mass. This will be a great time to allow the children to get to know each other as well. If you would like to join us or would like more details, please contact Jessica Santarelli at 614-330-2903 or email at me@jessicasantarelli.com.

MASS INTENTIONS AVAILABLE

We have many open dates for Mass Intentions on our calendar. Please contact us in the office at 740-967-7871, office@johnstownascension.org or drop a note in the collection with the intention and your name. The Mass Stipend is $10.00. We will do our best to accommodate any special date requests.

BLOOD DRIVE

The Red Cross is experiencing an emergency blood shortage as the nation faces the lowest number of people giving blood in 20 years. Blood products are currently going to hospitals faster than blood donations are coming in, and in recent weeks, the Red Cross has had to limit distributions of Type O blood products – among the most transfused blood types – to hospitals.

Our next Blood Drive is scheduled for Monday, April 15, from 12:00 Noon-6:00 p.m. Spring into action: Come give blood for a $10.00 e-gift card to a merchant of your choice. PLUS, automatically be entered for a chance to win a $7,000.00 gift card; there will be two lucky winners! Terms apply.

DOUBTS

Reflection on John 20:19-31

With the Apostle Thomas, there is both vulnerability and capability, both suspicion and consent, both doubt and faith. He is at first suspicious of the report of the Risen Jesus, wishing to not get "caught up" in what might be fake news. But when confronted in person with the presence of the Risen Lord, he does not push that suspicion to the edge of the ridiculous, but affirms the truth of what he has now arrived at.

It is not a sign of weakness to question one's faith. On the contrary, accepting doubt as a natural part of what it means to be human, one's questioning is a sign of an engaging and curious mind and heart. Through this journey of doubting and questioning, we move ever deeper into our relationship with God. Doubts and questions are an opportunity for spiritual growth.

This is spiritual integration. Rather than judge one side as unworthy of being a disciple (the experiences of doubt we all have), and accept faith as the absence of all questioning (which it clearly is not), Thomas represents the real and authentic journey we all make as we move ever more deeply into the recognition that God, in the Risen Christ, is present in every human experience, and that, as Richard Rohr says, "Everything belongs!"

SAINT STANISLAUS

Saint of the Day: April 11

Patron Saint of: Poland

Anyone who reads the history of Eastern Europe cannot help but chance on the name of Stanislaus, the saintly but tragic bishop of Kraków, patron of Poland. He is remembered with Saints Thomas More and Thomas Becket for vigorous opposition to the evils of an unjust government.

Born in Szczepanow near Kraków on July 26, 1030, he was ordained a priest after being educated in the cathedral schools of Gniezno, then capital of Poland, and at Paris. He was appointed preacher and archdeacon to the bishop of Kraków, where his eloquence and example brought about real conversion in many of his penitents, both clergy and laity. He became bishop of Kraków in 1072.

During an expedition against the Grand Duchy of Kiev, Stanislaus became involved in the political situation of Poland. Known for his outspokenness, he aimed his attacks at the evils of the peasantry and the king, especially the unjust wars and immoral acts of King Boleslaus II.

The king first excused himself, then made a show of penance, then relapsed into his old ways. Stanislaus continued his open opposition in spite of charges of treason and threats of death, finally excommunicating the king. Enraged, the latter ordered soldiers to kill the bishop. When they refused, the king killed Stanislaus with his own hands. Forced to flee to Hungary, Boleslaus supposedly spent the rest of his life as a penitent in the Benedictine abbey in Osiak.

Saints John the Baptist, Thomas Becket, Thomas More, and Stanislaus are a few of the prophets who dared to denounce corruption in high places. They followed in the footsteps of Jesus Himself, who pointed out the moral corruption in the religious leadership of His day. It is a risky business.
